WINTER WEATHER ACTS AS TONIC FOR SPIDERS

Coach Dobson Developing Line in an Effort to Block Activities of Quarter Back Bertschey.

NO NEW PLAYS TO BE USED

Richmond College Squad Well Prepared for Invasion of Williamsburgers, Who Will Bring Trainload of Rooters to This City Saturday.

With the appearance of wintry weather, the Spider football squad has taken on a renewed spirit of snap and ringer. In keeping with the temperature, the cold wind shooting across the stadium field and the hard surface that the ground presents have aided greatly in increasing the speed of the practices that are being pushed with more and more vigor every afternoon.

The spiders are at work in the most earnest spirit, and no one is seeking to shirk his share in the slightest degree. Coach Dobson believes that the play of the line is going to be of utmost importance in the remaining two games on the schedule, and he is devoting much time to the improvement of this department of the team.

At the beginning of the season the college line was the source of much apprehension, because it seemed to be very weak and ineffective. But with conscientious hard work the line has improved greatly, until now it has shown that it is eager and able to bear its share of the work in a game.

Yesterday afternoon, and also in the scrimmage on the preceding day, the line was clearly shown to be a testing and improving the play of the line. It is too early yet to note results, but Coach Dobson will be disappointed if the forwards do not show up in fine fettle here Saturday, when Williams and Mary is met at Broad Street Park.

The work to-day will probably bear on the play of the ends and the back field. It is a fact that William and Mary has in Bertschey, their captain and quarter back, one of the speediest and trickiest runners that plays in the league. This boy is always in the thick of the fray, and is very likely to emerge on an average game as a star, which spells disaster for the opposing team at the same time.

The first game between the Spiders and the Williamsburgers, Bertschey was not in his best form, and did not perform as well as he had expected. But even then he had a good game, every minute of the game, and succeeded in getting down on several long runs, and in coping down a defense that forward pass, besides booting a field goal in the early part of the game from quite some distance.

Therefore the locals will take the best care to see that this boy does not get away from them Saturday. It will be remembered that it was the same Bertschey who snatched victory out of the jaws of defeat in the early part of the season by grasping a touchdown from a long run from the back field, and a long forward pass in the last minute of the game.

They will hardly be given any new plays before the game, but rather the time will be spent in rehearsing those which they already have. In the game so far the Spiders have not used over half of the plays they possess, and with what they have they are going to spring several surprises.

The back field is in pretty fair shape, except for minor injuries which do not keep out of the game. The line, the men and Coach Dobson are getting so accustomed to having three or four men in the back field that they are not anything to dampen their enthusiasm. On the contrary, the feeling at the college is that the men will take part in the last two games even if they are ill for centuries.

It is rumored that William and Mary have decided to bring their entire student body with the team to attend the game here in view of the fact that the Spiders took over 300 down to the city when they went to Williamsburg. And the Williamsburgers want to demonstrate that they are supported by their team just as strongly as the locals are theirs.

They do this. It will undoubtedly add much spirit to the game, for the rival cheering of the two student bodies is always a feature.

SCHOOLBOY CLASSIC TO BE FEATURED SATURDAY

WOODBERRY FOREST, VA., November 18.—The annual game of football between Woodberry Forest and the Episcopal High School will be played Saturday at Woodberry. As the Virginia-Carolina game is the classic among college contests in the South, so is the Woodberry-High School game among school contests.

The scores of previous games played this fall point to an unusually interesting and exciting game. The Woodberry boys have managed a band for the occasion, and a record crowd is expected.

Woodberry may be without the services of Osborne Jones, one of her back field men. Jones twisted his knee in a scrimmage game and has not been in a scrimmage since. He is a Richmond boy, and has been a regular on the team for two years.

The officials will be McWhorter, of the University of Georgia; Varner, of the University of Virginia, and Tillet, of the University of North Carolina.

VALE'S FOOTBALL SQUAD WORK THE LATERAL PASS

Plenty of "Pep" Displayed in Final Scrimmage for Harvard Battle. Rush Line Unsatisfactory.

2,000 UNDERGRADUATES MARCH

Cambridge Students Encourage Crimson Eleven—Cornell Coaches Shift Tactics—Army Scrubs Use Navy's Style of Play—Indians at Signals.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., November 18.—Vale's lateral passing game worked with the smoothness of an icy sidewalk in the final scrimmage practice of the season to-day. Deftly tossed from runner to runner and back as two or three members of the back field sprinted down the field, the ball was checked down after a half hour's tussle with the scrubs.

The regulars made six touchdowns, requiring eight plunges for three of them. The other three were whisked aerially or laterally past the scrubs in gashes requiring only three moves in two cases and only one in the third case. Waite and Scovill got away with the most effective dash of the afternoon, putting the ball in play at the twenty-two-yard line. Waite heaved to Scovill who raced all the way for the score.

Waite and Ainsworth worked the lateral pass beautifully, and Waite crossed the scrub goal twice, closing a series of brilliant runs with Ainsworth. Scovill scored two touchdowns and Ainsworth two. The scrubs have their innings when they were given the ball on their own twenty-yard line and, using the Harvard style of play, Half Back George Ewing free outside of tackle for three ten-yard gains.

The plays continued to gain smaller distances till the thirty-yard line was reached, when Captain Joe Thompson, of the scrubs, got away a perfect forward pass to Cliff Brown, who raced over for the score. This test of the varsity rush-line proved it again unsatisfactory, but nearly half of its regular members were absent.

The practice opened with signal work and a few tacking on the old Yale field, but all the training was in the new bowl. The gridiron there was soft, and arrangements had been made to have the field heavily before the Harvard game. The recent two days' rain left it soggy.

The Yale coaches announced their statement this evening that they plan to start the same eleven against Harvard as they did in the scrimmage. The only player about whom there has been doubt was in citizens' slights. With the team being assured by Trainer Mack that he will be available Saturday.

The line-up was: left end, Goul; left tackle, Captain Abbott; left guard, Oakes; center, White; right guard, Farrar; right tackle, Von Holt; right end, Scovill; full back, Ainsworth; left half back, Scovill; right half back, Sweeney; full back, LeGore.

HARVARD. Cambridge, November 18.—With a brass band leading them, 2,000 of the first students marched to the stadium this afternoon to cheer the Harvard football eleven in its last game of the season before the Yale game. The team gave thorough signals in snappy fashion, while Captain Brickley maneuvered around the scrubs, putting over 300 yards in the game. The team is in good condition except Sweeney and Brickley. Every man will be fit to play the game of his life, and enthusiasm is running high around Harvard square. Although the betting is light, it is becoming active as the game draws near.

In talking to the writer to-night, Brickley said he would not get into a score at least three points before the curtain runs down on his football career.

The back field men, and the centers will leave Boston to-morrow at 10 o'clock for New Haven. They will be putting over 300 yards in the game, and practicing punts and catching the ball. This will give them an extra day, as the remainder of the squad does not leave until Saturday morning.

CORNELL. ITHACA, N. Y., November 18.—The only Cornell regular who may not be able to play against Pennsylvania is Jim Munick, left guard, who was injured in the scrimmage. He has not been able to get into the lineup so far this week. Riley played left guard in Munick's place.

After three days of light work the coaches shifted tactics this afternoon and drove the varsity through a hard workout. There was a long outdoor practice followed by a scrimmage in the baseball cage, which continued until long after dark.

The scrubs used the Pennsylvania formations and they managed to get a hard battle out of the game. The varsity by the use of the forward pass.

ARMY. WEST POINT, N. Y., November 18.—The Army is now pointing directly for the final game of the season, though the Springfield Young Woman's Christian Association team comes here Saturday. The cadets are being drilled daily to meet the Navy's game of football.

The scrubs, equipped with more than 100 yards in a short time, played a hard battle. The varsity, on the other hand, was in a short time, played a hard battle. The varsity, on the other hand, was in a short time, played a hard battle.

The former Purdue star scored a dozen goals from different angles. He kicked the ball six times, and was back in the game for a day limbering up, but will hardly get in the game with the Navy.

NAVY. ANNAPOLIS, November 18.—Owing to a lack of minor injuries from which the team are suffering, Naval Academy coaches did not drive the scrubs through a hard scrimmage this afternoon. They were satisfied with careful practice of formations on the attack and defense. In particular, the scrubs were given a hard time, as far as they are known here, were carried out by the scrubs.

Signals were given a long turn, as many of the men had had their numbers changed after the Notre Dame game.

PENNSYLVANIA. PHILADELPHIA, November 18.—The University of Pennsylvania football team began practice this afternoon for Cornell, and the coaches tried to make a change in the backfield. Avery was put at full back in place of Tucker, who failed to make good in the Michigan and Dartmouth games, while Mardeck displaced Merrill at quarter back.

WEEGHMAN FAILS TO BUY CHICAGO CLUB

Owner Taft Announces That Negotiations Are Off—Chubby Charlie Murphy's Influence Feels.

BRESNAHAN TO MANAGE CUBS
President Thomas Instructed to Bring Roger to Cincinnati to Attend Conference—War in Baseball to Continue.

CHICAGO, November 18.—Developments affecting the Chicago National League Club—and through it the baseball war between the Federals and parties to the national agreement—came to a head to-day.

First was the revelation that Charles W. Murphy, despite his having been the Chicago National League Club's manager, still has a large influence among those directing the club's affairs; then came Charles P. Weeghman's announcement that he had ended the negotiations for purchasing the Cubs in 1915.

Murphy's influence became apparent in the success of his fight to keep the Cubs on their West Side playing grounds, which is half owned by Roger Bresnahan who became manager of the Cubs in 1915.

The news of these developments brought from Charles Weeghman a heavy hit, but he will continue to fight the Cubs to the bitter end. He is confident that he will be able to buy the club, and that he will be able to buy the club, and that he will be able to buy the club.

Finally, Murphy stated positively that Bresnahan would succeed in his fight to keep the Cubs on their West Side playing grounds, which is half owned by Roger Bresnahan who became manager of the Cubs in 1915.

EXPECT CHANGES IN THE INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

President Barrow Announces That Team Would Be Placed in Brooklyn Should Baseball War Third Quarter.

NEW YORK, November 18.—Brooklyn must win a baseball championship next season by a weight of numbers if for no other reason. Edward G. Barrow, president of the International League, announced to-day that the league will continue to play the baseball war in an international league.

The new club will be placed in Brooklyn, and will be able to buy the club, and that he will be able to buy the club, and that he will be able to buy the club.

The promised third corps for Brooklyn's huge standing army of baseball does not seem to be the final word. The Navy's game of football is being played in the city, and the Navy's game of football is being played in the city.

manipulation of the forward passes, the second-string back field easily intercepting the ball on the air-line road three or four times. Carolina's eleven will receive some training in breaking up the passes of Goch and Mayer, of Virginia. Captain Dave Taylor, who watched the Virginia-Swarthmore game, placed a high premium on the aggressiveness of the Virginia back field department. His comment on Virginia's line was not so complimentary. Carolina will climax its season of the type of rough and tumble practice with a final scrimmage on Saturday afternoon. The program of the coaches is to forego a scrimmage contest on Friday, thus reserving the regular line play for the final mix-up before Thursday.

LOGAN CUNNINGHAM SHAPING BACKFIELD

Princeton Director Worried at Lack of Speed—Several Regulars Absent From Yesterday's Line-Up.

AFRAID OF FORWARD PASS
Captain Taylor, Who Witnessed Virginia-Swarthmore Game, Places High Premium on Charlottesville's Aggressiveness.

CHAPLAIN HILL, N. C., November 18.—Fortifying its offensive attack Carolina's regulars spent its force this afternoon on the defensive, the second string team on defense. Three touchdowns and three field goals in the summary of the achievements of the varsity in its first active scrimmage. The regulars were all too frequent in the back field department.

Coach Logan Cunningham, back field director and who contributed to the shaping of the modified Princeton shift in his first active scrimmage, directed the operations of the regulars. The inability of several of the players to travel over ground against the scrubs occasioned Cunningham's tactical worry. Captain Taylor, Full Back Parker, and "Bob" Winston figured in the struggle will necessitate the enemy's territory.

There were several absentees from the regular lineup—Pace Gowell, left guard, and Henry Foust, right end, were absent. Henry Foust was given a holiday. Henry Foust and Pace Gowell were defending the tackle positions. Roy Homewood, right end, participated in his first active scrimmage. He is not in the trim that the Virginia struggle will necessitate the enemy's territory.
